See you there!

The logo for First Methodist School's 50th anniversary features a central red house icon with a white roof and a blue door. The text 'First Methodist School' is arched above the house, and 'Duncanville, Texas' is arched below it. '50TH' is written in large letters at the bottom. The entire logo is set within a circular frame with a laurel wreath border. Surrounding the wreath are various biblical quotes, including 'Ps 78:3-4: "things we have heard and known, blasp our ancestors have told us & We will not hide them from their descendants; We will tell the next generation the glorious deeds of the Lord, His power and the wonders He has done."' and 'I will tell the next generation the glorious deeds of the Lord, His power and the wonders He has done.''.
